Fri-Son (Fribourg, Switzerland) is a music club, which exists since 1983. It is managed by a nonprofit organization called «Association Fri-Son » which is organized by a committee elected by the General Assembly. The committee is in charge of the strategy of the organization and hires the 10 office staff (general secretary, booker, communication manager, accountant, bar manager, infrastructure manager, technical managers, interns) while the office is in charge of the executive. The office works with about 13 working groups (security, bar, cloakroom, photography, cooking, cinema, evening organizer, decoration, book, sound, light, display, flyering). A total of 200 volunteers and staff work for Fri-Son. Most of our volunteers are aged between 16 and 35 years.

Fri-Son hosts more than 50,000 spectators a year and allows 110+ Swiss and international bands to perform either on the big stage (up to 1300 people) or on the little one (up to 250 people). The arrangement and adaptability of the venue enable the organization of more than 130 events per year, for example: live gigs, special artistic events, cinema, dj nights.

The volunteer can learn how a venue like Fri-Son functions during a whole year. The volunteer will be mostly working inside the venue. The tasks will be more “manual work” than “office work”. He-she can try most sector of work (bar, security, infrastructure, technique, cooking, decoration). He-she will be trained by the office team for the organization of events. The volunteer will be part of the team.

Her/his weekly plan will look like this (not exhaustive!):

- Tuesday & Wednesday: He/she participates in the production of the weekly events with the office team and other working groups. It means he/she will help us with the infrastructure (cleaning, preparation of the venue, backstage), cleaning and ordering the bar and the decoration.
- Thursday, Friday & Saturday: he/she works at night or during the day discovering the others activities concerning the evening organization, like decoration, security, bar service, hosting artists.
- Sunday & Monday would be the days off.

Example of project: the volunteer could create a working group with the task of hosting the artists. The mission would be to prepare the backstage and to accommodate the artists during the day they spend at the venue. Important: all these activities will depend on the skills and on the motivation of the volunteer. The week agenda will also be organized with the consent of the volunteer.

Profile: Woman or man, between 18 and 30 years old, Interested in culture, especially in music (rock, pop, electro, hip hop, reggae, dj party), flexible, sociable, serious.

The foundation Mère Sofia based in Lausanne is a welfare organization which helps the most impoverished. They have different departments that aid people in need. The volunteer will work mainly at the soup kitchen and may also support the itinerant social service.

About 30 co-workers, 3 interns and 220 volunteers work for the foundation Mère Sofia.

The EVS volunteer will have the opportunity to have an insight in one or two of these departments during his-her EVS, depending of his-her interest and French knowledge.

The EVS volunteer will mainly work at the soup kitchen. In addition to providing food assistance for free every single day of the year, the welfare organization's goal is to welcome each person without discrimination and allow a social contact with a group.

At the soup kitchen, the tasks of the volunteer will be

- Preparation of the meals and help in the kitchen
- Collaboration with voluntary co-workers
- Distribution of the meals
- Logistical help and maintenance work
- Social support during the evening.

When the volunteer has improved her-his French knowledge, he-she can support the itinerant social service. The tasks will be:

- Psychological support for people with social and financial insecurity
- Support for the itinerant social service

In this environment of work, the volunteer should be empathic and open minded. She-he should not be afraid to become invested in the lives of the impoverished people taking part in either the soup kitchen or the itinerant social service. Moreover, the volunteer should be able to coordinate a group and to collaborate with the team.

KiM – Kinder im Mittelpunkt is an organization that is active in the children's and youth work.

KiM mainly operates as a meeting-place for children and young people in Allschwil, the “Jugendland”. Children and young people can spend their free time on five afternoons and one evening at “Jugendland”. They are being looked after by two staff-members. The offer does not cost anything, with few exceptions. For the offers where a fee is charged, a social fund is established, so that the contribution should not be an obstacle for children or adolescents that cannot afford a participation-fee. The “Jugendland” offers children and young people a wide range of craft and game facilities, the possibility (if feasible) to realize their own ideas, to be creative, to exchange themselves in conversations with each other and with the leaders. In addition there are 2 camps per year and several other special events.

5 employees work at the Jugendland sharing 80 working hours per week. The team consists of a team leader, a deputy and 3 further team members. The team meets regularly for planning activities, for evaluation and for setting working time tables and vacations. In addition the team gets external supervisions regularly.

Jugendland is supported by many volunteers who sometimes help with the daily work but especially help at holiday camps, major events and special projects.

The tasks of the volunteers are:

- Organization of activities for children: plays and handicrafts.
- Work with the children
- Participation in camps
- Cleaning and maintenance work
- Different administrative tasks

ICYE (International Cultural Youth Exchange) aims to connect people from different cultures and backgrounds. Getting to know a different culture through working as a volunteer in a social or cultural institution and living with a local host family widens one's horizon and supports people's personal development while encouraging understanding and respect between different societies and cultures.

ICYE tries to achieve these goals through its cultural exchange programs:

- They send Swiss youths abroad for short (1-4 months) and long-term (6 or 12 months) voluntary services.

- They host youth from all over the world for long term exchanges (6 to 12 months).

During their exchange programs, these young people work as volunteers in local institutions and live with a host family.

The team of ICYE Switzerland consists of 4 part time employees, 1 trainee and 1 EVS volunteer. The programs are implemented with the help of many voluntary co-workers.

The volunteer will have the opportunity to get insight into all the fields of the organization and to have his/her own project which corresponds to her/his competencies. He/she will have the opportunity to have contacts with the co-workers of ICYE as well as with the Outgoings and Incomings.

What the volunteer can gain:

- insight into all the various and interesting tasks of a non-profit organization
- deepen his/her German - English and French knowledge
- intercultural learning
- work experience in office administration

Activities of the volunteer:

- everyday administration work
- support for the short term Outgoing program in Costa Rica
- helping to organize and participation in camps and activities for the Incoming and Outgoing volunteers
- helping with the marketing work: information evenings, workshops, social media, packaging of marketing documentation
- creation of additional leisure activities for the ICYE volunteers ICYE Switzerland
