

The European Voluntary Service is an exchange program financed by the Swiss Confederation, which allows young people between 18 and 30 years to do a voluntary service in a non-profit-making project in Europe.

Dates: From August 2019 for 11 months

Project description: Frivilligsentral Vevelstad in Vevelstad. "The only limitation is your own imagination" Come and help us out on the voluntary central, we're in need of some extra hands and brains! The main goal will be working with and for the local youth and organizing different kind of activities, both indoors and outdoors. Support the local youth council in their political work and environmental projects. You will also be working with and for the elderly and immigrants. We can offer a wide range of possibilities for personal growth! Learn the Norwegian language and the way of living in one of Norway's smallest municipalities located way up north. We are looking forward to future volunteers and welcome you with warm hospitality.

Accommodation: The volunteer will live in a host family. It will be in or nearby the town center. All activities will take place in Vevelstad. Transport to/from work will be arranged.

Volunteer profile: Are you enthusiastic, open minded and creative? Can you take a leading role but also work together with different kind of people? Do you enjoy wild nature and have no problems with sometimes harsh weather-conditions? Would you like to really get to know the rural Norwegian culture?

If yes, APPLY by sending an e-mail with the filled application form (that you can find on <https://www.icye.ch/de/freiwilligenarbeit-ausland/programme/europaeischer-freiwilligendienst/>) at evs-sve@icye.ch.

Application deadline: 30th June 2019

The EVS program is financed by the Swiss Agency Movetia. The grant includes: international transport costs, food and accommodation, pocket money, language support, health, accident and liability insurance.
